

Publisher's Note

When a gifted author presents an exciting concept such as the Character Culture Framework which you'll discover in Building a Character Culture, and combines it with a well told story to provide a captivating and relatable example, we are treated to an accomplished publication such as this. Kathleen's talent lies in the ability to bring together a phenomenal amount of well researched data and create an appealing narrative that outlines just how effective and necessary this model is to create a successful environment in the workplace.

As publisher and editor of Building a Character Culture for Trust and Results in the Workplace, it has been an honour to work with Kathleen. Her attention to detail and hands-on approach make her passion extremely evident, and speak volumes about her commitment to produce a product that truly delivers in every sense.

Building a Character Culture is the beginning of a dynamic new series you will definitely want to follow. Be sure to watch for Kathleen's next offerings coming soon: Communicating in a Character Culture, and Coaching in a Character Culture.

Sheri Andrunyk
Publisher, Editor, Author, Speaker & Consultant
Insightful Communications Publishing
I C Publishing ~ Committed to Quality Content

Should you be interested in booking our dynamic authors/ speakers for your events or media interviews, please contact info@icpublishing.ca.